Course Overview

This course is designed to develop your understanding of key responsibilities in protecting children, young people, and vulnerable adults. It covers three essential areas:

Understanding the Prevent Duty - Learn how to identify and respond to signs of radicalisation and extremism, and understand your role in preventing them.

Understanding Safeguarding - Gain knowledge of safeguarding principles, policies, and procedures to help ensure the safety and wellbeing of those in your care.

Understanding Online Safety - Explore the risks associated with digital environments and how to promote safe online behaviour.

By the end of the course, you will have a clear understanding of how to uphold a duty of care in any setting where safeguarding is a priority.

Course Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for this course. It is open to anyone with an interest in understanding safeguarding and the Prevent Duty.
